Leadership Institute
Presents

Transformational Leadership

A leadership Conference for Professionals

Under the theme

"Thinking Globally, Acting Locally – Addressing corporate challenges through effective leadership"

Date: November 18 & 19, 2009

Venue: The Jamaica Pegasus Hotel

Time: 9am- 4pm daily

What is the Leadership Institute?

The Jamaica Association of Young Professionals is committed to developing leaders through the JAYP Leadership Institute. We recognize the importance of preparing our present and future leaders for success and intend, through this institute, to train many young professionals as transformational Leaders. The mission of JAYP's Leadership Institute is to promote healthy, just and sustainable human systems by educating professionals to live and lead with integrity.

The Institute's approach to leadership emphasizes integrity, self-awareness and understanding of how and why individuals act, react and interact as they do in groups. The Institute's seminars provide in-depth training for professionals who want to bring about significant change in their organizations and to recharge their roles in teams, departments or companies.

Who should attend?

The Conference is geared at and designed for professionals in the public and private sectors, who hold at minimum a diploma, in a variety of fields, including; business, health, information technology, government, law, education and industry inter alia.

The conference will cater to managers, senior managers, directors, group/division leader and organization leaders among others.

What Can I Expect?

Each day includes a large group workshop that will address the following leadership skills:

Leadership Styles	Communication
Financial Planning	Group
Dynamics
Ethics and Values	Vision
Strategy	Change
Facilitation	Perspective
Inter/Personal Strength
Creativity and Innovation

Some objectives of the Conference include:

- Strengthening the performance capacities of young professionals as agents of change to confidently confront leadership challenges
- Developing the skills and methods young professionals use to engage in and understand leadership through practice-in-action and reflective leadership inquiry.
- Developing a personal leadership philosophy that reflects greater knowledge, capabilities, and confidence.
- Examining new techniques and technologies that young professionals can use for driving results throughout the company, even in a downturn.
